N^o 579.

ACCORDING to Letters from Poland and Turkey, the Grand Vizier was expected every Day at Bender, where 40,000 Men were already arrived. The following is an Extract of a Letter from his present Camp at Baba-dagh, showing the State of the Negotiations on foot with the Porte.

The Grand Vizier, by every Step that he takes, seems as if his Design was to baffle all that he has to do with. There are positive Advices from Constantinople, that the Grand Seigneur has sent him Orders to assemble the greatest Part of his Troops towards Bender, to be ready to join the Tatars, in order to act in Case of Need against the Russians: Yet notwithstanding the Certainty of this Order, the Grand Vizier assures the Foreign Ministers, that this Motion of the Troops is for no other Purpose than to make them change their Quarters, and that they may be sent to such Places where there is greater Plenty of Provision and Forage, than there is on the Banks of the Danube. He said also, that he was going to Bender for no other Reason, but to be near the Place where the Conference were to be held for the Peace, and that he might contribute to their Success. He accompanies all those Assurances with the most specious Marks of Sincerity; he even affects not to believe the Reports that the Russian Army has receiv'd Orders to make ready for a March towards the Frontiers of Turkey. The Grand Vizier continues to be exceedingly complaisant to the Ambassadors of the Emperor, England and Holland, whose Expenses are borne by the Porte; but the Aim of this Behaviour seems to be, by their Means to prolong the Time fix'd for the Negotiations of Peace. The Emperor's Ambassador, Fahlman, is treated with the greatest Distinction: A Company of Janisaries keeps Guard before his House. Besides the Horles, and other fine Things, of which the Grand Vizier has made a Present to him on the Part of the Grand Seigneur, he also lately sent him several Pieces of those fine Silk Stuffs, mix'd with Gold and Silver, which are made in Persia, and in the Dominions of the Great Mogul. The Grand Vizier has declar'd to Mr. Fahlman, That the Grand Seigneur always earnestly desir'd to make Peace with the Crown of Russia, if it could be concluded on reasonable Terms; but that if that Crown insisted on Impossibilities, his Highness hop'd the Emperor would not concern himself with that Power, in the War against the Porte. He also gave the Imperial Minister to understand, that if his Master would have that Regard for the Grand Seigneur, that Prince would gratefully acknowledge it, by more certain Advantages than any that can be promis'd from the Chance of War.

The French Mail brought Letters from Genoa, of the 15th ult. O. S. with Advice, That the Affairs of Corsica continue in much the same Situation as before; that the Rebels make Excursions even to the Gates of Bastia; that they have found out the Secret of making Salt, of which they sent some to the Governor of the Place, who was not a little surpris'd at it; and that they receive so many Supplies of Ammunition and Provisions from Places unknown, that the Republick has resolv'd to put some Gallies to sea, to prevent the Arrival of any more, and also to send some Troops and Provisions to the Genoese Place in the Island of Corsica, because the Rebels stop Succours from coming to them by Land.

The Letters from the Frontiers of Turkey, by Way of Vienna, confirm that the greatest Part of the Turkish Forces have quitted the Banks of the Danube, and are on the March towards the Bosphorus, to oppose any Designs of the Russians from that Quarter.

The Chevalier de Rusea, the famous Painter of the North, is now at Potsdam, by Order of his Prussian Majesty, drawing the Pictures of all the Royal Family, in which he succeeds with the universal applause of the Court. He is just come thither from Brunswick-Wolfenbüttele, where he gain'd very great Reputation by his Pieces, and especially by the Portrait of the late Duke, whom tho' he had never seen, and only drew him from the Representations given to him of his Person by other People, yet he has taken his Likeness so much to the Life, that the Duchess Dowager could not forbear shedding Tears, as soon as ever she saw it, and made him a Present of a Purse of 50 Ducats.

They write from Hanover, That one Plessen, under Sentence of Death, having threaten'd that the whole City should be burnt, if they carry'd him to Execution, the Magistrates, after having taken all due Care to make the most timorous of the Inhabitants easy, caus'd him to be taken from the Prison in which he was confin'd, last Friday se'nnight in the Morning, and carry'd to the Place of Execution at Farenwold, where he had his Flesh torn off with red-hot Pinchers, by the common Hangman, and after being broke alive, his Body was laid upon a Wheel. One of his Accomplices, as great a Villain as himself, underwent the same Punishment; another was beheaded, and a fourth hang'd. Two Women had also their Heads cut off, and a third was sent to a House of Correction at Zell: And a Christian and three Jews of the same Gang were also carry'd to Hamelen; there to be put to hard Labour for the Remainder of their Lives. As this German, Car-touche was notorious for his Robberies in a vast Number of Places, a Multitude of Spectators came from all Parts to see his Execution.

IRELAND

Roscommon, April 20. Last Saturday ended our Assizes, when Hugh Kelly, formerly Turnkey of Newgate, was sentenc'd to die for Burglary and Felony: When he was brought to the Bar, he sign'd himself mad for about two Hours, and then made many Overtures to have his Trial put off; it was with much difficulty, after threatenng to persiade him to Death, that the Judge could get him to Plead to his Indictment.

Tuam, April 20. At our last Assizes held the 31st Instant, one John Foster, an Out-Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital, was convicted of Burglary, and sentenc'd to be hang'd on Saturday the 23d Instant: for the first five or six Days after Conviction he appear'd a zealous good Protestant, but when he found no Prospect for a Reprieve or Pardon, he declar'd himself openly a Papist.

Trim, April 21. On Monday last about One o'Clock in the Morning, a Fire broke out in Athby, by the Carelessness of the Servant Man, in the House of one Rock a Tanner, which in a short Time burnt his own and two other Houses; the Damage would have been very great, had it not been timely prevented by a Wedding in the Town, at which there were a great many People, who first discover'd the Fire, and alarm'd the Neighbourhood.

LONDON

The Traders to Carolina have, for a considerable Time, been under Uneasiness, occasioned by Rumours of an intended Invasion, or Attack on Georgia and that Province, by the Spaniards of St. Augustine, the Havana, &c. But as nothing thereof was attempted to the Middle of March, it was hop'd, that if the Spaniards in those Parts ever had such a Design, it was laid aside; and that the People of Georgia and Carolina had nothing to fear: But by Advices from Carolina to the 20th of March, there is too much Reason to think that the Design did still subsist, as may appear by the following Extract of a Letter just arriv'd from Carolina, to a Merchant of this City.

The certain Advices from the Havana, by the Way of Providence, made me hurry away 100 Barrels of Rice short of my Cargo, for fear of an Embargo, which I had Reason to believe would be laid on in a few Days. The Advice which was a few Days before I sail'd, confirm'd the former, of the Spaniards arming at the Havana, and that they only waited for the Barlovento Squadron, to strengthen their Naval Force with two or three Men of War: They are to carry 600 Troops from thence to join an equal Number at St. Augustine, besides Volunteers, &c. And on receipt of those late Advices, there were Expresses dispatched by the Governor and Council, to their Agents in the Creek and other Indian Nations, to endeavour to raise 500 of them; 300 to be sent to Georgia, and Orders to others to buy Rice and Corn for Provisions for them.

Notwithstanding the Indifference the Generality of the Inhabitants of Carolina affect, yet I am well assur'd, that the Thinking Part of them are very much concern'd at their present Situation in several Respects; and they have Reason to believe, that the Spaniards Views are not confin'd to Georgia, but extend to Carolina, where they have neither Forts nor Castles (worth mentioning) to secure their Stores, Provisions, Women or Children in; but must leave 'em expos'd to a more dreadful Enemy than the Spaniards, viz. their Slaves, to whom the Spaniards are to give their Freedom; and I am jealous that some of them know it; for a few Days before I sail'd, which was the 23d of March, they rob'd a Store at Dorchester of Arms and Ammunition; so that the Carolinians have only to depend on their own Courage and Strength in the Field, and if they come to engage, God only knows the Event; and you may easily guess, what a Fright the Sight of a formidable Enemy would put 'em in. Pray let me know, what Notice our Government have taken of this intended Design.

Sir James Rochford of Inverleith, Bart. lies at the Point of Death.

The Royal Regiment of North British Dragoons, commanded by Brigadier General Campbell, is on the March from Kello to Essex; and his Majesty's own Royal Regiment of Dragoons, commanded by Lieutenant General Gore, is on the March from their late Quarters at Haddington and Dunfermline, to Lancashire. We hear that the latter is to be replac'd this Week by Lieutenant General Honeywood; and the former some time next Month, by Sir Robert Rich.

On Saturday Evening a Gentleman was rob'd near the Green Man on Epping Forest, by Turpin and Rowden, of 8 Guineas, his Mare, Silver Spurs and Whip.

Yesterday the Person who keeps the Green Man, went with the Gentleman to several Stables in White-chapel, in quest of which they found the Mare; they staid till Rowden's Brother came for the Mare, Rowden himself waiting at the Corner of Red Lyon Street in order to mount and accompany Turpin, who was on Horseback at some little Distance. On the Attempt to seize Rowden, several Pistols were discharged, and Turpin coming up to his Relief, he and by Accident shot Rowden, who was then secured, and Turpin made off. Rowden had the Gentleman's Whip in his Hand. He has since discover'd three Persons who have been concerned with him in several Robberies on the Highway.

Last Night Townsend Andrews, Esq. Member of Parliament for Bellingham, and Deputy Paymaster of his Majesty's Forces, lay at the Point of Death, being given over by his Physicians.

Memoirs of the Life and Death of the late Rev. Mr. Anthony William Boehm, formerly Chaplain to his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark, and Minister of the German Chapel at St. James's in London: Together with a particular Account of his Exemplary Character, and of his Writings, drawn up by the Rev. John Jacob Rambach, Professor of Divinity at Hall in Saxony; now made English by John Christian Jacobi. With a Recommendatory Epistle, by I. Watts, D. D.

Ruptures cured by Mr. RAMSAY, Surgeon, at his House in Castle-yard, Holborn.

It is apprehended that the Neglect of Advertising for upwards of Two Years, has occasion'd a Report that the said Mr. Ramsay was dead, or had declined that Branch of his Business. The great Numbers of Persons who labour under Misfortunes of that Nature, call for a Renewal of Publick Notice. That Mr. Ramsay continues effectually to cure all Disorders of that Kind; which was many Years ago well attested by very eminent Physicians and Surgeons; and any of the Curious or Afflicted may now be well satisfied by applying to the Publisher of the Craftsman, and many others, of the Certainty of Cures performed within later Times.

N. B. To prevent any one from losing the Opportunity of consulting with him that comes a great Way, he is at Home Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays, until 12 o'Clock. No Letters received, except Post paid.

Concerning Gleet and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleet and Seminal Weakness, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollution sui, or any other Cause whatever; that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Heedrick Heats, a Tabes Doloris, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Confusion, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleet, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollution, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Discharge of Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Urine, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they must assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMIC RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Cure after having for many Years been experienced never once fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleet known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMIC RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Diseases of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleet or Seminal Weakness of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surpris'd at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleet and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and all who ever took it for any of the above-mentioned Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radcliffe's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is entirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary.

An immediate and never-failing Cure for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the most excellent Medicine for this Purpose that ever was known, which so far exceeds any thing ever yet published, as made Use of, that there is no Comparison; its Virtue is beyond Expression, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come short of its just Praise.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an instant Cure for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, from what Cause soever, or of ever so long standing, having cured vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and all Ages, that have been in a manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines external and internal, by Advice, and also by Publication, have failed, with the greatest Ease and Safety, and to their utmost Satisfaction and Wonder; for,

In a peculiar Manner it strengthens, softens, and looses the Drum of the Ear, which by being cried, or driven, is often the first, and chief Cause of every Complaint of deafness, or of Noise, or Pain in the Ears, &c. To remedy which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick, that never fails perfectly to cure all possibly curable Cases, after all Means and Medicines have utterly failed; which is more than can be said of any other Thing in the whole World besides itself: As Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congealed Matter in the Ears, it instantly cures.

It is sold for 2 s. 6 d. each Bottle, by the Author's special Appointment, at Mr. Radcliffe's Tinshop, the Sign of the Black Horse and Star, in Fleet-street, near Fleet-bridge, and no where else in England.
